☐ Comment. Coal stocks continued to rise during the period under review. As compared with the last reported period, they increased by 8,735 tons, mostly brown coal briquettes to a new total of 233,686 tons. Hard coal stocks decreased by about 2,000 tons. According to the daily consumption quota of 17,700 tons, this quantity corresponds to 13.2 days' requirements. The backlog of undispached cars was normal. The number of operational railroad cars continued to decrease, but was above the fixed daily quota of 80,000 units throughout the reported period.
